Topeka High School

Topeka, Kansas

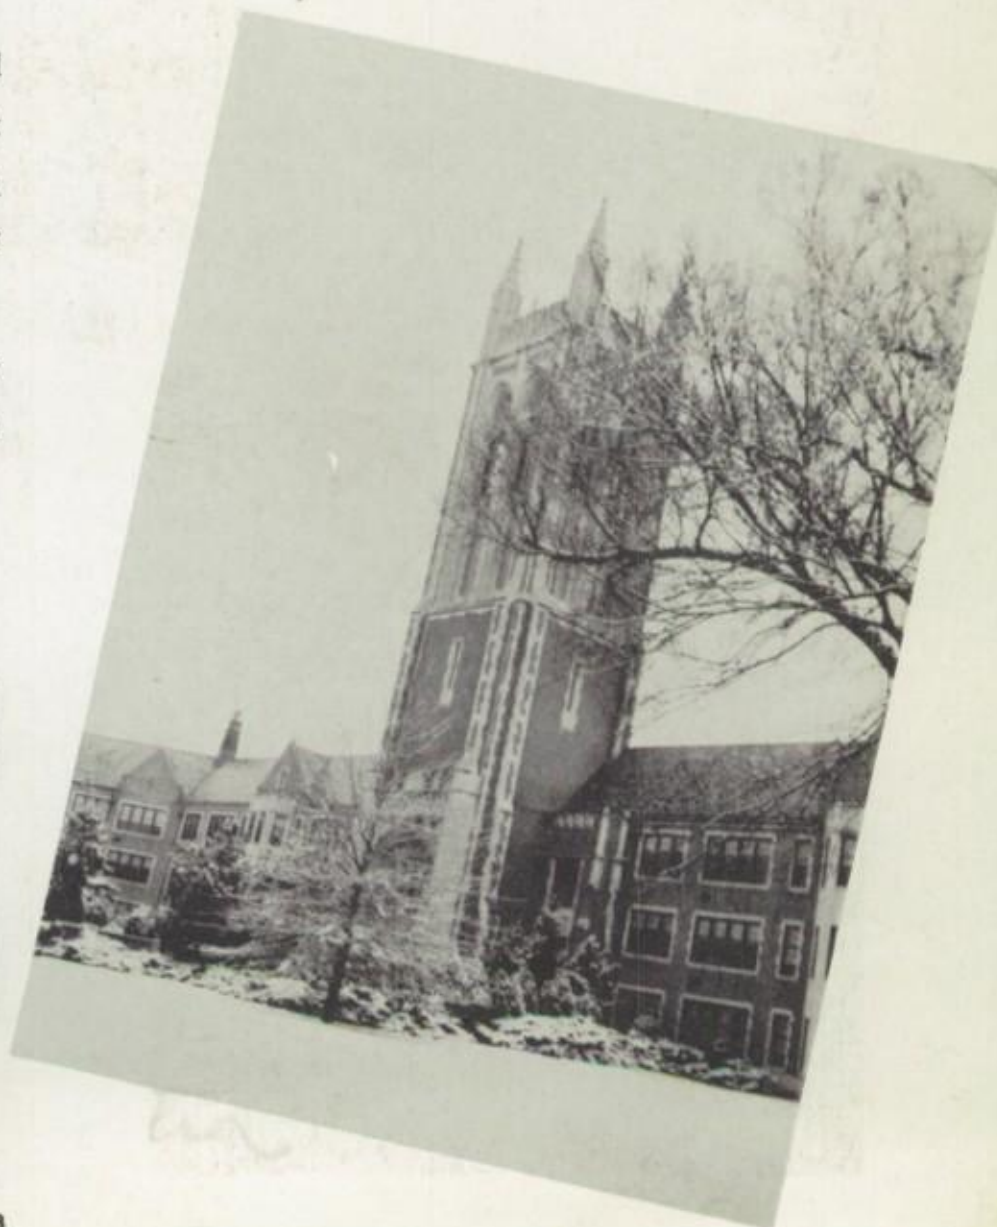

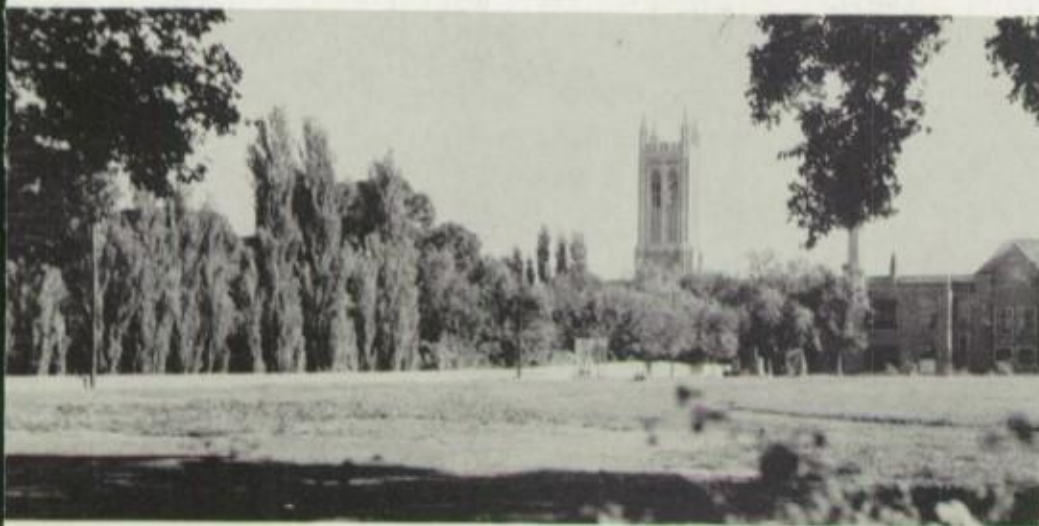

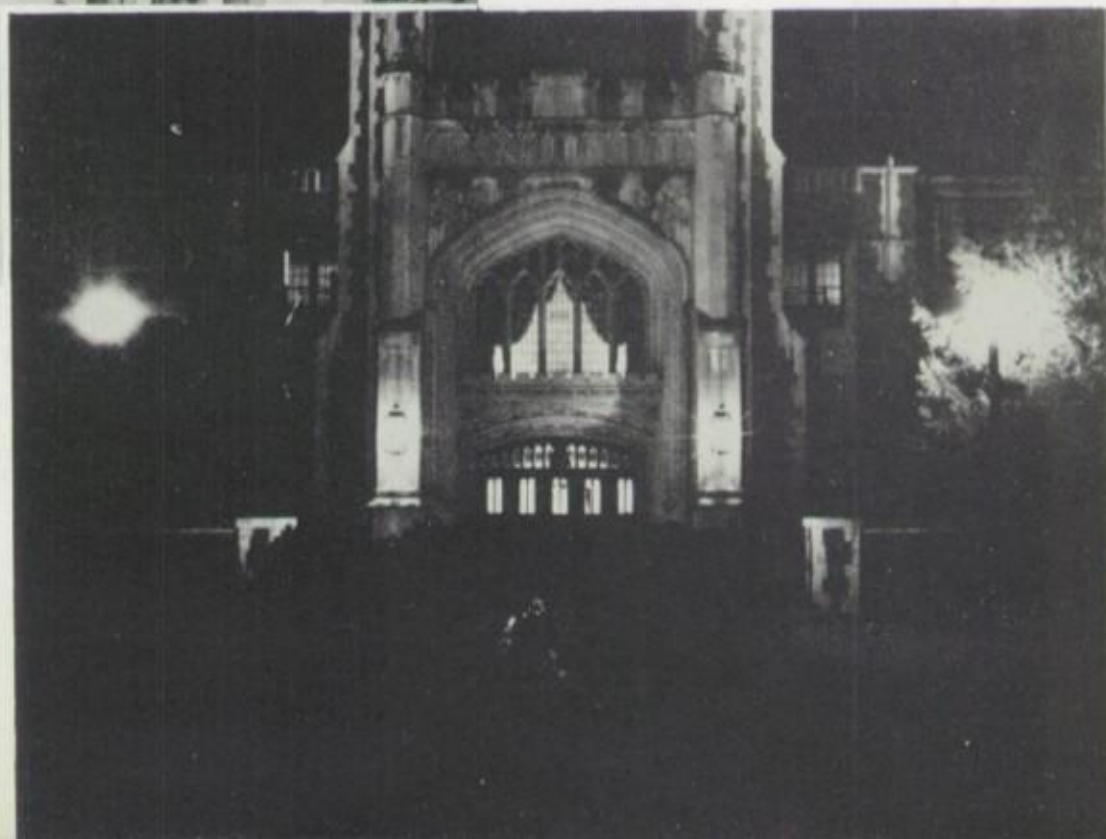

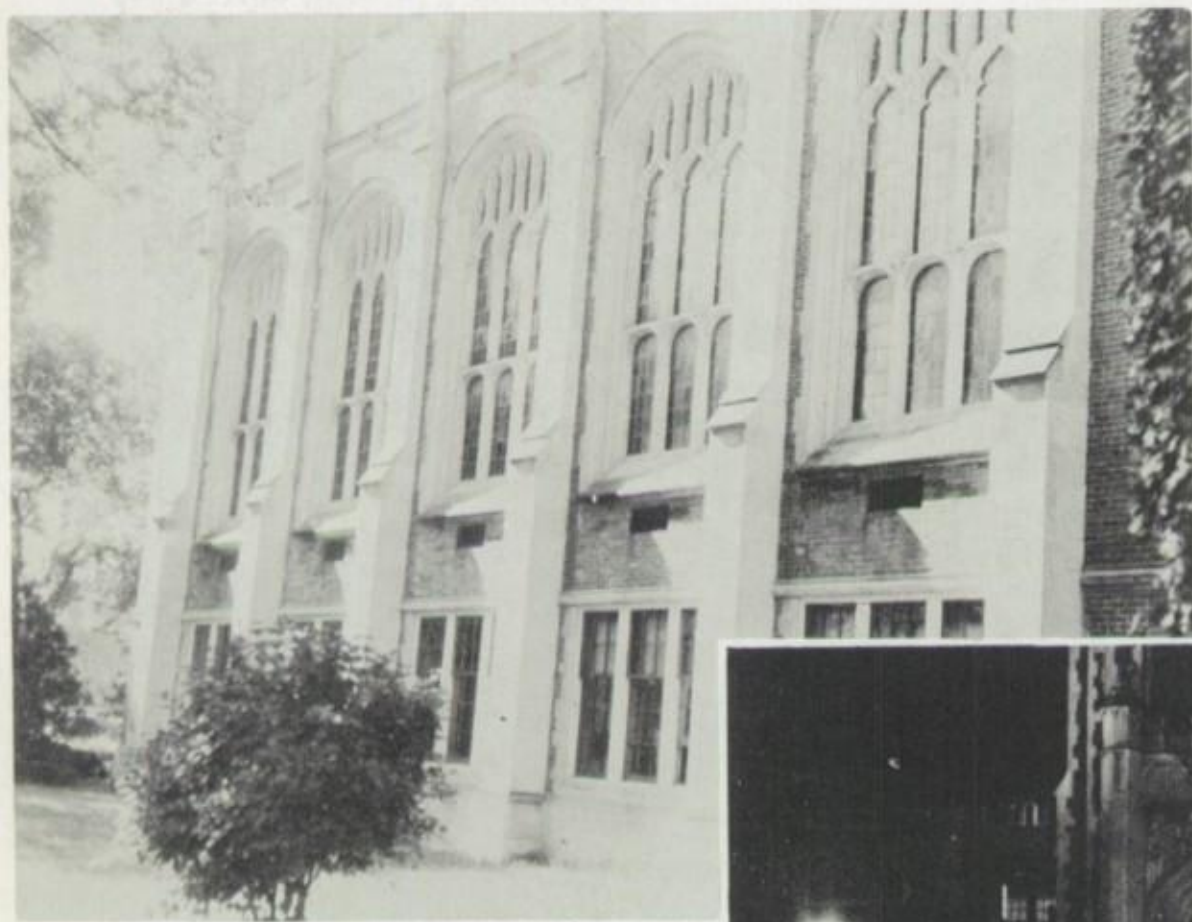

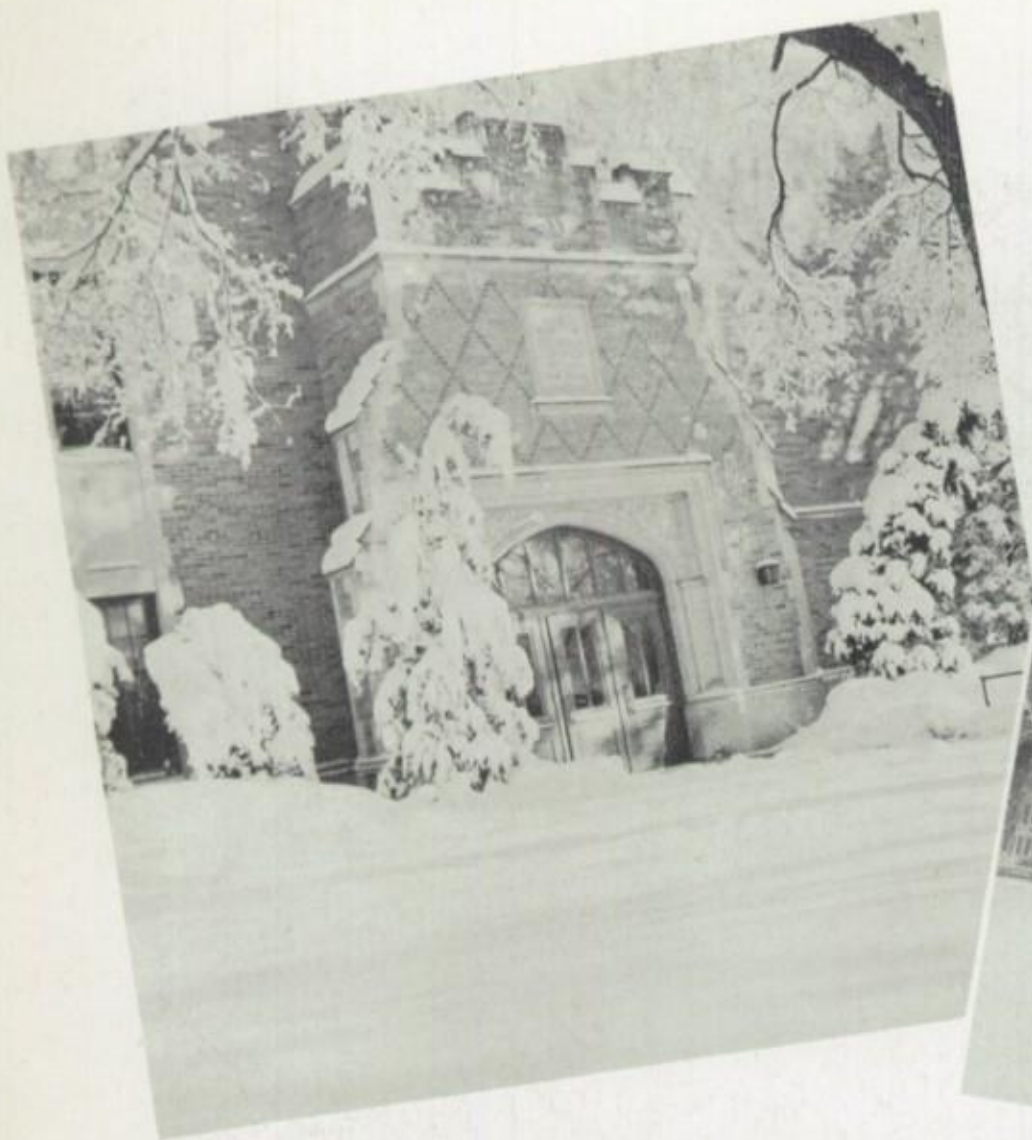

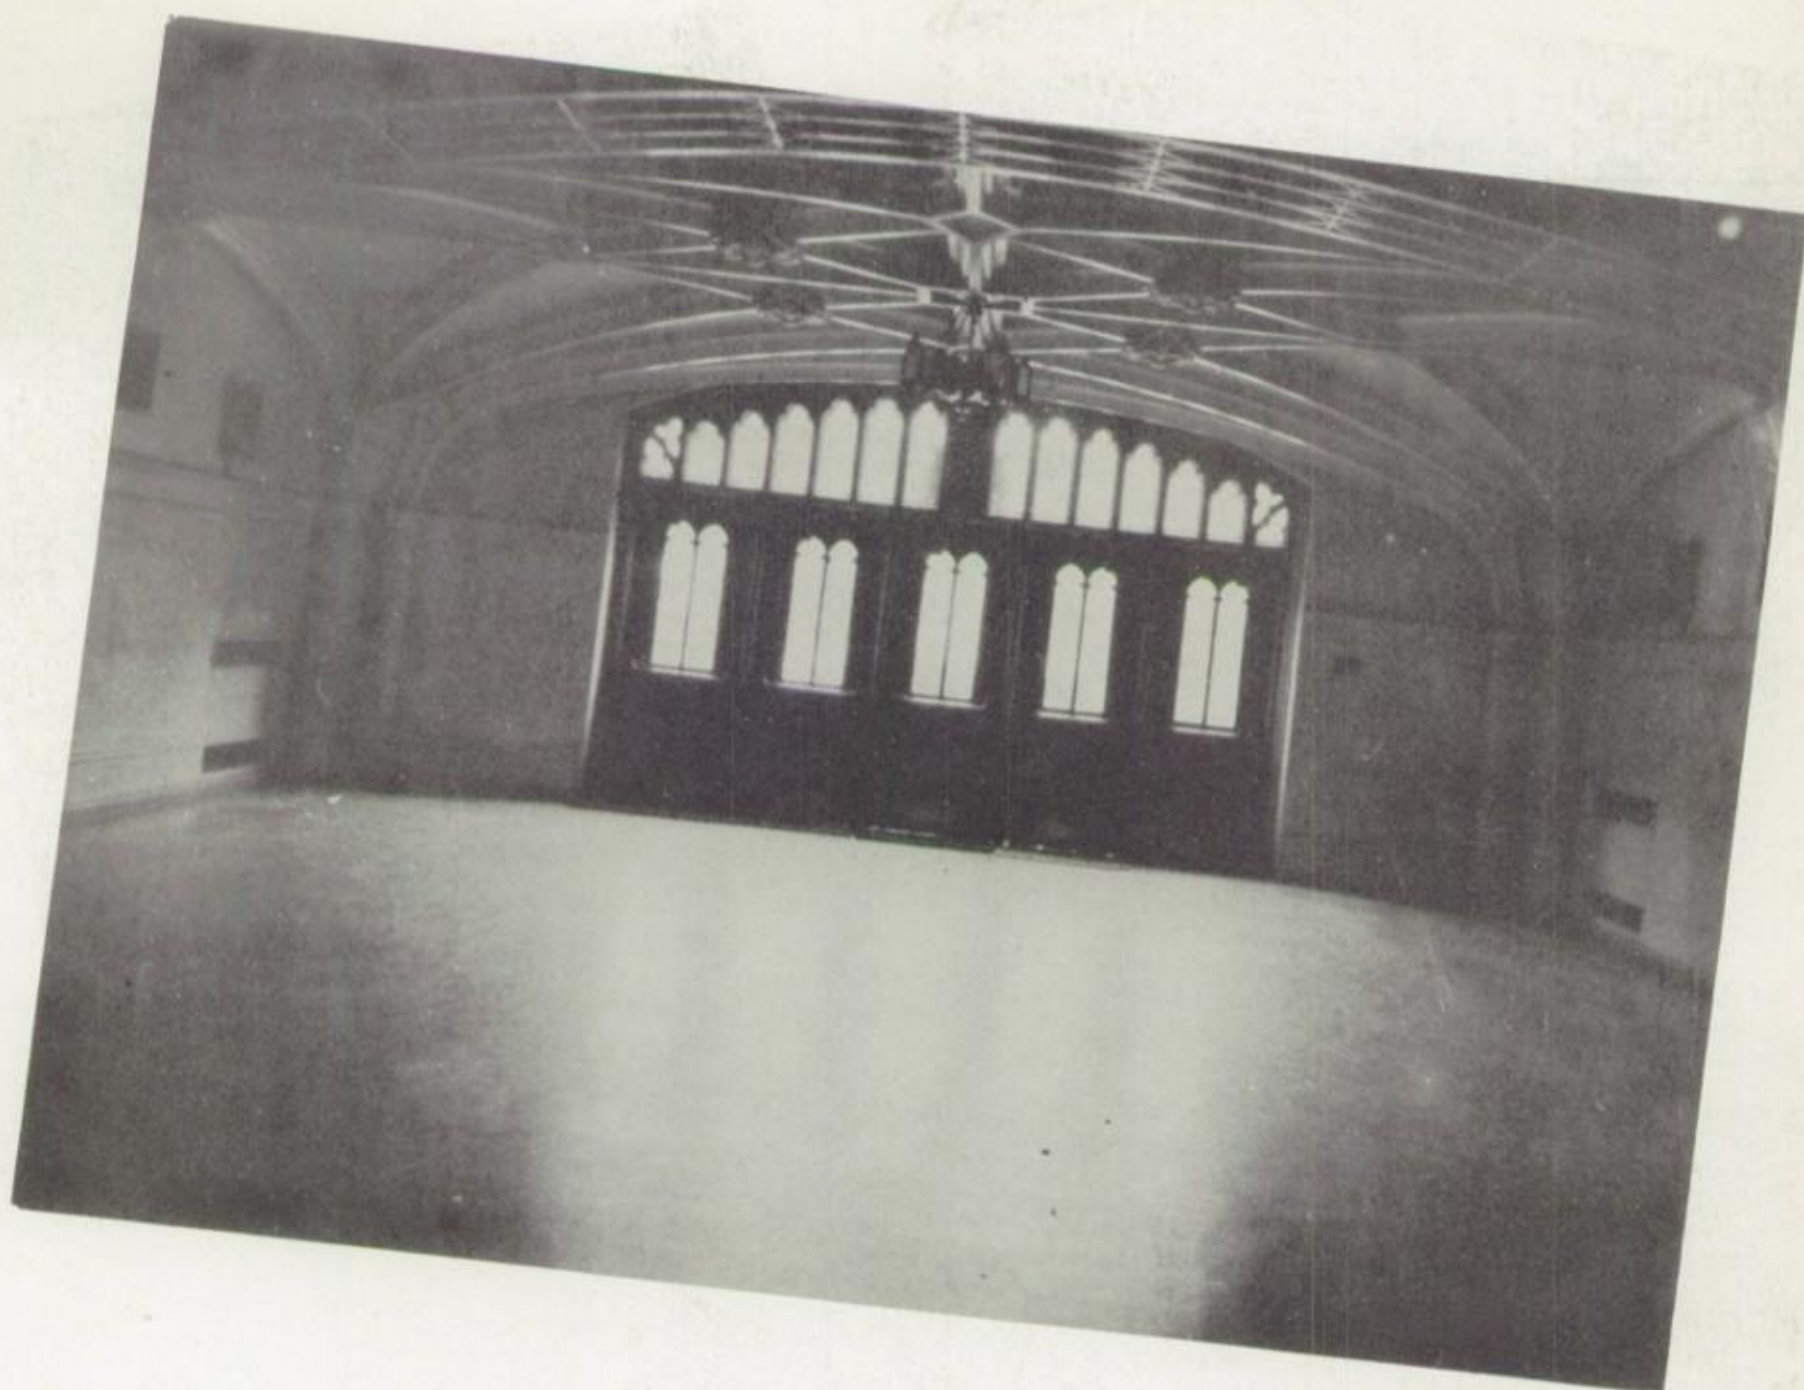

Foreword

We, the staff of the 1952 Sunflower, have worked long and hard to present a worthy record of the past year. It is our hope that in the years to come this book will become a key to unlock for you the memories of a glorious high school year.

Take this key to that year and if, as you turn the pages, the serious as well as the happy moments are again recaptured, our work has not been in vain.

In Memoriam

WILLIAM J. BARNETT
1899-1951

*As a teacher or a coach,
A husband, father or friend,
You were always above reproach,
On you we could depend.*

*As long as the sun rises at dawn,
And sinks low into the west,
Your memory will linger on Because, to us, you were the best.*

ADMINISTRATORS

Each year the responsibility of keeping Topeka High functioning properly falls on the shoulders of the administration. Each year they strive to see that their duty is fulfilled, that every Trojan achieves his ultimate goal, graduation. In addition, they try to perfect methods to bring students closer to success.

E. B. Weaver, Principal, does his utmost to keep the wheels of Topeka High running smoothly. The job of arranging and rearranging enrollments keeps Mr. Meyers and Mr. Graves busy. Guidance in social, curricular and personal problems is offered by Mr. Leonard Moulden, dean of boys, and Miss Annabel Pringle, dean of girls.

Members of the school board confer to see that students have every advantage. Mr. Wendell Godwin, newly appointed Superintendent of Schools, visited Topeka High frequently. Executives of the Board of Education are M. C. Oberhelman, President; Jacob Dickinson, Vice-President; and LaVon Armendariz, Secretary, and Mr. M. J. Whitson, the Assistant to the Superintendent. Through the efforts of these persons, Topeka High stands today as the symbol of education for the city of Topeka.

Behind the Desks

FACULTY

*Shades of Caesar! It's Mrs.
 Sutherin and student!*

As holders of the key to learning, the faculty of Troy found itself in a precarious position: could it or could it not fulfill its job? The answer was evident as the year drew to a close. Faculty members could and did do their assignments, and came through with flying colors. The labor was hard, staying late and coming early, enduring trials, troubles, and tribulations of students; but the educators were not deterred in their purpose.

Perhaps during the school days the younger citizens of Topeka High grew to realize the loyalty and hard work of their elders. Faculty members carry the entire purpose of education on their shoulders, and deserve all the appreciation that can be given them. So the Sunflower offers huge bouquets of gratitude to the wonderful faculty of Troy.

SENIOR GIRLS', BOYS' COUNCILS

Elected by the Junior girls in their homerooms last spring, the Senior Girls' Council is composed of fifty members.

Senior Girls' Council sponsored the All-Girl Party, were hostesses for Open House, served at Vespers, sold Senior announcements, planned the mother-daughter tea for all Senior girls, and supported the Pan-Hellenic Fashion Show.

Members of the Senior Boys' Council are elected by the other senior boys in their homerooms at the beginning of the year.

Faculty Advisor for the Senior Boys Council is Mr. Leonard Moulden, Dean of Boys, who helped them sponsor the Senior Forum.

With the assistance of faculty sponsors Miss Annabel Pringle and Mr. Moulden, the Senior Boys' Council and the Senior Girls' Council jointly sponsored College Day where they also served as hosts and hostesses.

Like any high school that functions properly, Topeka High has its own student government. Composed of two houses, the Student Congress debates on all issues that threaten the "peace and quiet" of Troy.

This year the entire Congress met to discuss the Honor "T" problem. After a lengthy debate, the Congress decided to leave the honor "T" as it is "due to popular demand."

Student Council members meet every Tuesday during the fifth hour with Vice-President of the Student Congress acting as speaker.

Among Flying Campaign Cards

ELECTIONS

Election time! and what a time! Posters, cards, bands, balloons, money, and dozens of other little gadgets that cause custodians to bemoan their fate, floated around the halls. "Vote for Snodgrass"; "Elect Claghorn and get six months' vacation," were but samples of the strenuous campaign.

Color and excitement in election time surpassed even other years, as close races and recounts aided Trojans a great deal in seeing the value of democracy and governmental participation. There was even a case when a senior representative lost his position in a vote recount.

Yes, democracy reigned for two hectic weeks. Candidates left no stone unturned in their efforts to get votes, and did not hesitate to make wild campaign promises. But it was all in the spirit of good fun. As the results were made public, there were handshakes and congratulations, tears and smiles, but through it all ran a trend of good will.

Under the authority of Bob Gelvin, Election Commissioner, and Jackie Mills, Election Clerk, who were assisted by the Election Board, the election moved smoothly along. Even the lack of a jalopy parade didn't make much difference. The primary served to narrow the field, making competition just that much keener. After the thrills provided by ties and one-vote margins, the final election was an exciting ending.

1. Larry Shiner turns out dozens of posters for candidates.
2. Judge Woodell swears in the Senior Class officers: Charles Evans, Faye Kramer, Ann Colvin, Fredrica Voiland, Nancy Huffman, Bob Hobbs, and Jack Greenwood.
3. Don't tangle with him, pardner!
4. Music has charms but not this kind!

Time has come for us to leave the sheltered halls of Troy and wander out upon the highways of life. What the future holds for us no one knows. Yet, as we reflect, our days at Topeka High stir memories within our hearts.

Remember our sophomore year? "The Red Mill" . . . Janie . . . Christmas formals . . . The All School Party and E. B. Weaver's hilarious portrayal of the "Blushing Bride" . . . our sophomore party.

Then we were Juniors and at last felt like full-fledged Trojans. Who could forget the antics of Miriam in "Dear Ruth" . . . "The New Moon" . . . "Tons of Money" . . . our first Prom?

Now we are Seniors. This is our year. "Father of the Bride" . . . "Pirates of Penzance" . . . formal dances . . . the Junior-Senior Prom. Class Day and graduation climaxed this, the most perfect of all years.

But Topeka High has provided even more than a social education, for here we have had the opportunity to learn how to think, to govern and to prepare ourselves for tomorrow. Troy has given us the key to success which will open our gateway to the future.

"Everybody loves a circus", and from this theme "Sawdust Serenade" converted Hoehner Auditorium into a Big-Top. Despite a mortgage and its villainous holder, who threatened to foreclose on the night of the big opening, the show must go on; and go on it did. Through hilarious circus acts and songs, varying from a trained bear who wasn't very trained after all, to a plaintive singing of "I Cain't Say No", the laughter mounted. The smart-alec tramp, played by Gary Watson, managed to trouble circus manager "Barney" portrayed by Jack Barrett, sufficiently enough so that "Barney" was scarcely able to capture the escaping convicts "Little" George Neaderhiser and dangerous E. B. Weaver. Barney received enough reward money to pay off the cruel mortgage holder, Larry Cunningham, in time to start the show.

"Sa-ay, Buddy, can you spare a dime for a cup of coffee?" Gary Watson beseeches Jack Barrett.

Mr. Hoehner produces another masterpiece in stage setting.

Thrills, Chills, and Dancing"

PARTY

Tension and excitement mounted as the circus stars prepared to throw out the welcome mat to the All-School Party royalty. Jack Greenwood sang a serenade to the queen, "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody", and the spotlight turned to attendants Jane Henry and John Dixon, Peggy Fry and Phil Coolidge, Ann Colvin and Bob Gelvin, and Jackie Mills and Karl Schowengerdt. Then came the moment all Troy had been waiting for, as up the center aisle walked Queen Marlene Sewell and King Dan Robison. In a beautiful ceremony, Student Council Vice-President George Davis crowned the queen with a wreath of white carnations, and presented her attendants with corsages.

Everyone left for the cafeteria, to dance to the music of Louis Eversole and his band, as King Dan and Queen Marlene reigned. As the 1951 All-School Party came to a close, tired but joyous Trojans went home, assured that a lovely queen and a handsome king were enshrined forever in the heart of Troy.

Our Junior Year. This is the most fun of all . . . we can no longer be called "sub-scrubs" and yet there is none of the nostalgia that comes with the knowledge that our high school life is over. We are right in the middle of things . . . the Junior Play, that most memorable occasion, the Junior-Senior Prom, and the Daisy Chain.

Socially . . . this year has been a whirl . . . academically . . . we have embarked on the threshold of obtaining our goal . . . the key to success.

On the Rolling Seas JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Ship Ahoy! Here comes the S.S. Troy loaded with a cargo of fun for all Juniors and Seniors attending the annual Junior-Senior Prom!

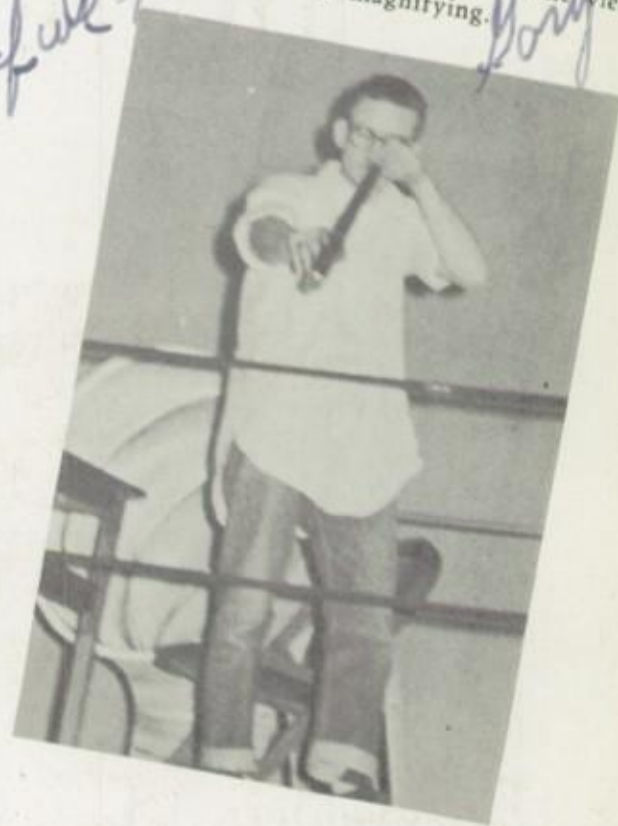

At 7:30 o'clock on April 4 a reception committee composed of the junior class officers, members of the board of education, and members of the administration was standing by to greet guests aboard to attend the 1952 Junior-Senior Prom.

In Hoehner Auditorium at eight o'clock, a program featuring an all-junior cast was presented in a very nautical manner. To add just the right realistic atmosphere Katy Choguill designed the set which Mr. John Hoehner's stage craft classes obligingly created.

Written by Delmont Hadley and Ruth Pickett the S.S. Troy, a luxury ocean liner, was presented in the form of a musical comedy and made the program the highlight of the evening.

Del Weidner and his orchestra provided the music for dancing in the student cafeteria after the program.

Mr. Pilley - It's really been nice having you for a teacher. Even if we had a few arguments. Lots of laughs. T.H.S. Gary Watson seems to find the view (below) worth magnifying. Gary Watson

Sub-scrubs! Yes, that was the first word we heard as we entered the halls and classrooms of Troy. We were startled at first, then grinned and learned to take it in stride and with good humor. As induction time came up, we prepared to be tripped up, but also to listen to the speaker, and think seriously of the rights and duties of true Trojans.

As the year progressed, we grinned and bore the jokes that headed our way up on "the shelf." Bustling busily we made ourselves known by the "Roaring Twenties" sophomore party and the rabid election ideas we presented. As the school year came to a close, we, and all of Troy, knew that we had made the beginnings of our mark, and were ready to use the key that would admit us to the hallowed ranks of upper classmen, for we had gained knowledge and friends.

For Kiddies Only

ALL GIRL, SOPHOMORE PARTY

"Baby Face!" Yep, those tiny tots are mighty cute! It would be fun to return to the days of our childhood where there were no worries, no studies, no problems. With this in mind the Senior Girls' Council selected the theme for the All-Girl Party. It was a kiddie party where every girl could play with her dolls and not be kidded about it.

Everyone came dressed as a little girl or boy and prizes were given for the cutest and most original costumes. Marlene Sewell and Nadyne Underwood as Tom Sawyer and Becky Thatcher were the lucky winners.

Refreshments were served after the program and a parade of kiddies in costume down the avenue followed.

The Roaring Twenties, those fabulous, hectic days of the past lived again for the few hours of the Sophomore Party. But the acts presented and the talent in them were strictly 1952 style.

Variety seemed to be the idea in mind, with song and dance acts such as "I Double Dare You" by Sue Reeder and Jacque Hartman, and "Down By the Winegar Works" presented by Janice Mitchell and Barbara Frager. Sentimental songs were also the rage along with pantomime. The whole program finished wildly with a police raid on the customers by the boys of the cast, to the accompaniment of a can-can dance by the girls. As the party was a "Roaring Twenties" affair, costumes were the trend, with flapper outfits running rampant. Prizes for the most novel and outstanding costumes went to Betty Seltsam and Paul Eldien.

"Swish, swish through the tall grass." Helen Graves takes the All Girl Party on a lion hunt.

With New Talent

YOUR SHOW

Beginning a precedent at Topeka High was this year's staging of "Your Show". With the purpose in mind of giving more students a chance to perform for the school, a committee representing the three classes started a campaign for talent and held auditions. A group of students, many of whom had never been in front of a Trojan audience before, worked long and hard to put on a super-colossal vaudeville show, and with Don Wallace and Ardelle Anderson as emcees the show went on. Acts varying from a Charleston dance in "Roaring Twenties" costume to an imitation of the Bell sisters were presented, and chorus lines and comic opera renditions were featured. Receiving a roaring welcome from the students, "Your Show" was proclaimed tops, and Trojans looked forward to 1953's "Your Show" eagerly.

2. Mary Lou Prabel and Eddie Foree rest after their rendition of Slaughter on Tenth Avenue.

From Tears to Laughs

"FATHER OF THE BRIDE"

"Stanley! Look out! Your pants!"
R-R-R-I-I-I-P-P-P-P!

The curtain rang down on the second act of "Father of the Bride" as a blush slowly rose to the face of Phil Coolidge who starred in the title role.

It all happened because Carolyn, who portrayed Mrs. Banks, simply had to have the grandest wedding in town for her daughter Kay, Mary Welty. Father was forced to wear a tux twenty years old for lack of money to buy another.

"It will only cost a small sum . . . plus this . . . plus that . . . plus everything . . . what do they think I am, a millionaire?" yelled poor "Pops."

But as all fathers really are, no one was prouder of his daughter on her wedding day than the father of the bride.

Under the direction of Miss Gertrude Wheeler the Junior Play featured laughs, tears, and an all-school cast.

With Kindly Intent to Kill

"ARSENIC AND OLD LACE"

Scheming sisters decide fate of Mr. Gibbs.

"Charge!!"

With this bellow Teddy Brewster dashed up the stairs of the Brewster home to get his shovel. It seems there was a body which had to be buried in the Panama Canal (in the basement).

The body had arrived in the Brewster household because Aunt Abby and Aunt Martha delighted in their "charity" of bringing peace to poor old men who were alone in the world. The aunts had managed to put away twelve old gentlemen before they were discovered. However, the situation was complicated by the arrival of nephew Jonathan, who also had twelve bodies under his belt, but for reasons other than charity.

The innumerable corpses were quietly disposed of through the auspices of Teddy, who thought himself Teddy Roosevelt, and fancied the victims to have died from yellow fever in the Canal Zone.

From this point, hero Mortimer Brewster took over. Bewildered at first (understandably) he soon determined that something must be done, and did it, to the tune of comedy and more comedy. Near escapes from death, fair damsels in the clutch of villains, elderberry wine (poisoned, of course) and thirteen dead bodies intrigued the audience through two-and-one-half hours of solid hilarious entertainment.

Billie Sue Braddy and Katy Choguill did the honors as the two perfectly harmless (?) aunts, bringing a great deal of entertainment to the on-lookers. Doug Wallace, as Mortimer, confused but in there trying, finally came out on top in an extremely funny denouement; and Ralph Seger, as Teddy Brewster, dug his canals and buried his bodies with hilarity to top it all.

Yes, "Arsenic and Old Lace" was a huge success, sponsored by the Senior class, with the help of Miss Gertrude Wheeler.

On the Stage and Off

DRAMA GROUPS

This year has been an eventful year for Troup No. 210 of the National Thespians Society. For, on December 27, 1951, a banquet was held at the Ranch House celebrating the reunion of members of the Thespian Club from as far back as 1930 and up to and including the recently initiated 1951 members.

To qualify for membership in Thespians a student must have had at least 75 lines in a play, or have held a major staff position.

Larry Shiner, President; Billie Sue Braddy, Vice-President; Katy Choguill, Secretary-Treasurer; and Faculty Sponsor Miss Gertrude Wheeler were the behind-the-scene persons guiding the Thespians through another smashing year.

Merging with the Junior Class the Masque and Wig Club brought to the Topeka High audience the hit play "Father of the Bride".

Sponsored by Miss Gertrude Wheeler, Masque and Wig is composed of all students participating in plays, staff positions or in play production classes.

Masque and Wig elected as its officers, Phil Coolidge, President; Althea Bromich, Vice-President; and Sidney Beattie, Secretary-Treasurer.

SERVICE GROUPS

Under the direction of Miss Evelyn McCauley the Play Cadets took tickets, gave out programs, sold tickets, and did many other things necessary to make a play run smoothly.

"Audio-visual aids" were always welcome in the classroom. They broke the routine and if a movie was scheduled it was certain that there wouldn't be a shotgun test that day. A vote of thanks goes to all the Movie Proctors, led by Vernon Hayes, who have kept up our morale during 1951 and 1952.

With the supervision of Miss Bernice Finley the Usher Club has done a grand job of seeing that everyone had the right seat at the right time.

Bob Harness and Barbara Baker "remind" Jerry Tipton that it is his duty to stay with the pirates.

"PIRATES OF PENZANCE"

Presented to an appreciative audience in Hoehner Auditorium by the advanced music groups, "The Pirates of Penzance" once again became a smash hit on Topeka High's stage.

Gilbert and Sullivan's ever popular operetta tells the story of Frederic, an indentured pirate who attempted to enter a more honorable profession and of his subsequent romance with the enchanting Mabel, his release from the pirate band after which he meets the charming wards of the Major-General, their capture by the pirates and finally the maids' rescue from the pirates by Frederic.

Don M. Gleckler directed the vocal groups with C. J. McKee and Robert Rue directing the orchestra.

Stage sets which were designed and created by the stagecraft classes of J. H. Hoehner, added beauty and authenticity to the musical.

"BRIGADOON"

Roaming through the fields and forests of "Brigadoon," the music department of Topeka High received ovations from two responsive audiences. Magic and spells entangled the featured singers and those lucky enough to get tickets to the performances enjoyed themselves fully.

In the enchanted forests of Scotland, Tommy and Jeff discover Brigadoon, a lovely little town where everyone is dressed in fashions of two hundred years ago. The two Americans are told that the village is under a spell and is only visible once every hundred years. The townspeople sleep throughout the disappearing period of the spell and awaken a century later. Tommy and Jeff must either leave or remain for the next century, for if they stay they will disappear. Jeff prefers to leave but Tommy falls in love with a Brigadoon lass, Fiona, and naturally prefers the atmosphere of the Scotch hamlet. Before the problem is straightened out to everyone's satisfaction there are wild chases through a dark forest, lovely Scottish dances and songs, and a beautiful love story.

The performance of the play orchestra was notable in the fact that it played an accompaniment through the entire operetta, a difficult feat for high school students. With such lovely songs as "Almost Like Being In Love" and "Waiting for My Dearie", and attractive settings, the audiences could ask for nothing more.

GLEE CLUBS

Hearing the finest in vocal music was the pleasure of audiences to which the Boys' and Girls' Senior Glee Clubs sang. The groups, directed by Don M. Gleckler, presented a Christmas assembly to the students and joined in the Easter program. "The Pirates of Penzance" and "Brigadoon" also received their attention.

Throughout the year the two choral organizations have traveled to civic groups in Topeka to give programs, and the junior high schools have listened to performances by the singers. Various church groups, too, have heard the two groups.

As music festival time rolled around, the music department prepared to send contestants to Lawrence for the district festival. String and vocal ensembles, instrumental soloists, and vocal soloists attended the festival in April, and gave Topeka High a showing to be proud of.

For Harmony

MADRIGALS AND CHOIR

Enjoying an unusual musical reputation throughout this section of the state, the Madrigal singers have reached the pinnacle of vocal music in the Topeka High music department. The group has participated in several school assemblies and has sung for civic organizations. Songs known as madrigals were sung in Elizabethan England, and music presented by the singers is selected from that type.

In their striking black and gold robes, the choir performs at many assemblies of a religious nature. The Choir was the largest organized mixed vocal ensemble at Troy, and upheld the reputation of the music department in their varied appearances.

"I Love a Parade!" And so does the Trojan Band! Whenever there is peppy music the familiar black and gold uniforms are sure to be in view. At the football games they march at the half, play for the queen at the Homecoming game, and strike up a song whenever spirits are sagging. Then come the basketball games and the band is on hand to keep up the good work. The climax of the year for the band is their annual spring concert given in Hoehner Auditorium.

Directed by George Neaderhiser and Robert Rue the 1952 Trojan Band had quite a year!

"Say It With Music!" The orchestra does just that. Whenever it is needed for assemblies, open house, intermissions at plays, accompaniment to the operettas, Vespers, the processional at Baccalaureate or just to fill in between the acts of a program, the orchestra is always glad to comply and express their feelings with beautiful and inspiring music.

With Honor

One of the most worthwhile projects sponsored by the Junior Red Cross this year was the sending of Christmas greeting boxes to foreign countries. Topeka High filled approximately three hundred boxes with the money donated during homeroom.

Along with their annual Christmas caroling at Winter General Hospital the Red Cross, with Miss Ruth Grandon, sponsor, added something new at Topeka High, the Dutch Dance.

For the first time in eleven years Topeka High School captured first place in the State Debate Tournament. This win climaxed one of the best seasons and saw the Trojans gain seven trophies.

In the experienced division Bob King, Clif Kruse, Margaret Smith and Bill Nowlan won first place in the Wyandotte High Invitational and at Atchison, second at Emporia and third at Pittsburg and Hutchinson. Topeka was nosed out by two speaker points in the district tournament as they took second place behind Shawnee-Mission. Two weeks later, February 9, found the Trojans fighting for the state crown. Topeka finished first by four speaker points. The state championship was in the hands of the Trojans and their coach, J. M. Hill, for the first time in eleven years.

Clif Kruse relates to Bill Nowlan, Becky Stafford, Jim Miller, Margaret Smith and Bob King how they won the trophy.

With Ancient Customs

LATIN CLUB

After a lapse of fifteen years the Latin Club, organized by Mrs. Helen Sutherin, got off with a big bang. Becoming affiliated with the Junior Classical League gave the group, composed of all Latin students at Troy, a good start. With assistance from the league, regular meetings were held and officers were elected from each Latin class.

Big events for the new group were the Roman Banquet, in which all the students participated by wearing Roman togas and putting on skits about Roman life; and the Latin Open House, to which all junior high Latin students were invited. The latter was inaugurated to give junior high students a chance to see high school Latin students in action.

"Now, let's see, where do I go from here?" The easiest way to find out is to approach the nearest Hall Proctor and get the right directions. Any other questions on the mechanism of Troy will be gladly answered by the proctors under the direction of E. L. Fink.

Assisting Mrs. Fern Taylor, school nurse, "cure all ills" is the job of the Nurse's Proctors. Besides acting as receptionists, they carry passes, answer the telephone, and perform other helpful tasks.

Library Proctors are always ready to help find books, check books out, take roll and put books away. With their help the library is always in order.

Seeing that Topeka High varsities went off without mishap was the job of the Varsity Cadets. Through their efforts the varsities were a success and everyone had a good time.

The Game Cadets, aided by Kenneth Powers, helped make our home football and basketball games a big success. By selling and collecting tickets, and distributing programs, the cadets were a valuable service to Troy.

For Better Living

KEY CLUB, F. H. A.

This year the Key Club, a Junior Kiwanis Club, sponsored the student and faculty directory. The directory is a handy little book listing the names and addresses of all students and faculty members in Topeka High. Charles "Tickey" Moyer is president of the organization.

Interested in better homemaking, the Future Homemakers of America is a national organization that is doing something about making better home-economists of our modern girls. Each year the members of each district have a meeting at which they discuss the respective activities of each club and elect their officers for the forthcoming year.

SPRING WORLD

The spring World started out with a bang. First came "Brigadoon", the operetta . . . the senior play . . . Quill and Scroll banquet at Lawrence . . . the topsy-turvy April Fool edition, then the Junior-Senior Prom. All in all there was so much going on that the six-page World was kept overflowing with news.

The business staff tramped the avenue and camped in downtown stores. Furnishing the ads kept the solicitors on their toes, so that the World might run an extra picture.

The fall World started the presses rolling and the spring World with Conn Orr as editor slowly brought them to a halt with a job well done.

Amid Pep and Sports

TROJAN PEPSTERS

Troy Janes is the athletic organization for girls at Topeka High. By participation in intramural activities, the members can work toward a letter, then a green sweater, and finally a gold pin. Shirley Curtis is President and Miss Jeanne Cooper and Mrs. Mildred Dodge are Faculty Sponsors.

To be eligible to join the Pep Club the only thing necessary is to have a black sweater and skirt and to wear the Trojan emblem. This is the uniform of the Pep Club. Composed of four committees, the publicity, finance, assembly, and point membership, the Pep Club keeps the yells going and spirits high at all the games.

Honorary Pep Club is composed of girls who through service in the regular Pep Club have earned enough points to be eligible. The members wear white letter sweaters and sit in a "T" formation at the games. With the black background of the Pep Club the white "T" really stands out and lets everyone know where Topeka fans are. Marilyn Dunn is President of the organization.

School spirit is important to every high school and especially to one as large as Troy. So, "Let's go, Trojans!" We went, led by the yells and cheers of six cheerleaders, elected by the entire student body. At pep assemblies and on the field and gym, pep was the key word with these energetic Trojans.

Cheering was not limited to the varsity games by any means. Three vivacious "B" team cheerleaders were out at every one of the junior varsity games to help the team to victory. But, win or lose, the cheerleaders were always behind the teams, for which all concerned offered a big bouquet of gratitude.

FOOTBALL

With only a handful of seniors reporting, coach Bob Briggs found himself faced with the task of rebuilding his 1950 state championship squad. At the beginning of the season Briggs put it this way. "With our inexperience you can just about guess our weakness."

The Trojans of 1951 were a squad that could look either good or bad. At times they looked like they could defeat any eleven in the state. On other days they were unable to look like a halfway decent entry in any league in the state.

Opening the season with a 45 to 7 win over Hutchinson, sport scribes were so impressed that they named the Trojans the number two team in the state. After a loss to Lawrence the next week end, the Trojans dropped from the top ten for the year.

Wichita East was forced to come from behind for its 21 to 13 win over Troy on one of the Trojans' better nights.

Undoubtedly the big game of the season was the first post season game for the Trojans in recent years when the Topeka club roared back from a narrow 7 to 6 advantage at the half to dump Hayden 21 to 6. This victory proved that the Briggsmen had learned their lesson and would be one of the top squads in the state in 1952.

Amid the Snowflakes

HOMECOMING

Snowflakes drifted downward from the jet black sky . . . tension mounted to a peak . . . from the velvet darkness a crown of multi-colored lights glittered like precious jewels . . . notes of "My Wonderful One" floated into the crisp air. Queen Jackie Mills ascended her throne. Jeanine Eldine and Peggy Fry were in attendance.

"It was like living in a dream, a very wonderful dream. I just couldn't believe it," Queen Jackie then added, "It was the most thrilling moment in my life."

Her Majesty reigned over the Homecoming Varsity . . . camera bulbs flashed . . . dance music played softly . . . then it was all over . . . another Homecoming Queen had been honored. Now there was no tension and the snowflakes drifted downward.

For Future Varsity Squads

FOOTBALL "BEES"

Vernon Hayes commanded the "B" football team again this year and the record showed a total of four games won and two games lost. One game was tied.

The purpose of the team, referred to only as scrubs, was to give the varsity squad competition and to build healthy, sturdy football players for the years to come. Under the careful, watchful eye of Coach Hayes, these boys developed into the varsity men of tomorrow.
From time to time they were moved into varsity positions, and the element of competition kept the varsity squad active and alert in order to hold down the number one berth.

We salute the "B" team and its coaches by predicting real success for the forthcoming season because of the enthusiasm shown by the team during the 1951-52 football season.

"B" TEAM—Kneeling: Ed Foree, Ray Stockwell, Joe Jaramillo, Elias Arbaiza, Edgar Graham, Don Erwin, Larry Crook, Tom McCoy, Jim Gifford.

As Bearded Sportsmen

SADIE HAWKINS' DAY

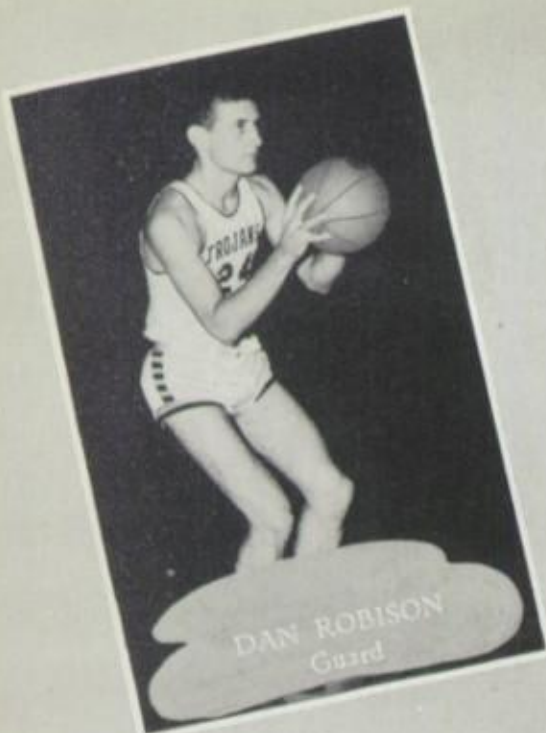

Composed of all the boys that have lettered at Topeka High, the "T" Club bands together representatives of all sports. Initiation into the "T" Club is an annual highlight, as candidates become the subject of good-natured hazing from the old members, while the rest of the school receive a good many laughs.

The annual Sadie Hawkins party, sponsored by the "T" Club was a howling success with Phil Coolidge and Larry Waters growing the best beards. With Charles Davis as President and D. L. Erwin as Faculty Sponsor, the "T" Club ended another year.

1. Joyce Berridge and Dan Holcomb relax for a while on the univent.
2. Charles Davis awards dollars to Bob Willis and John Casson.

Ending the season with a record of 13 wins against 8 losses, the Topeka Trojans captured first place in both the Sunflower League and the Regional Tourney. Topeka finished in a tie for fifth in the state tournament held in Manhattan.

The season can be summed up in one word, SPEED. The Trojans fielded one of the fastest squads in recent basketball history at Troy. Lacking a giant at the center position Topeka called on team play for the difference.

Bill Reichert led the Topeka scorers with a 10.6 average. This fast break artist was one of the main reasons for the showing made by the Trojans this year. Dave Carpenter, junior, reached the starting lineup at the last of the season and will be counted on heavily by Coach Shannon next year. John McIntosh also played at the starting forward slot through the season. George Golliher was shifted to forward from the center slot.

At center it was Ivan Malm and Don Cavanaugh who held the job of stopping the tall opposing centers.

Guards for the Trojans were Dan Robison, senior, who returned from last year's starting five; Jim Griffith, one of the speeders of the Trojans; Jerry Rosenlund, and Jim Humbert.

The Trojans had one of the best scoring averages in the state as they compiled a 55.9 average. Throughout the season, it was evident that the defense of the Trojans was the fallacy of the Topeka club. On defense the opponents of Troy averaged 53.6.

"B" TEAM

In his first year as assistant coach to Howie Shannon, Jack Dean guided his junior varsity squad to a very successful year.

As with the varsity Trojans, the "B" squad featured speed. Bob Crawford who played on both the "A" and "B" teams was an excellent example of the talent Dean produced. Crawford was one of the eleven Trojans to earn a monogram at the end of the year.

Perhaps one of the greatest achievements of the "B" team was the showing made by Dave Carpenter. Carpenter came from "B" squad regular at the start of the year to starting line-up by the State Tourney time.

Because of the fine showing by the junior varsity the 1952-1953 Trojans will be of definite contention for state honors.

WRESTLING, GOLF

Placing tenth in the State Wrestling Meet, the Trojan matmen ended the season with three wins and six losses. With Jay Davenport and Charles Davis placing second in the Regional Meet, and Jack Warner, Jerry McWilliams, Bob Hobbs, and Bruce Fields drawing fourth in the state tourney, Coach Floyd Holcomb's wrestlers showed improvement.

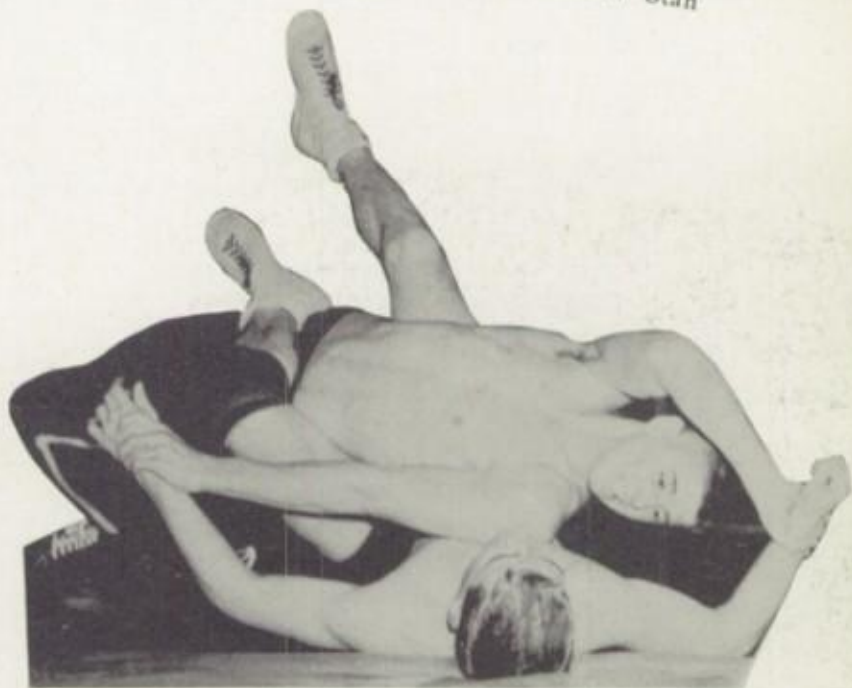

Several sophomores turned out for practice this season giving hope of a better Trojan wrestling team in the future.

The golf team, under E. L. Fink, faced a hard season. With four returning lettermen their hopes of another top year on the links were high.

Since this book went to press before the golf team had finished their year's activities it was impossible to give the final scores.

TRACK, BASEBALL

Jack Dean took control of the Trojan baseball squad as the Trojans prepared to recapture the Border League crown they lost last season. Dean, who assisted Howie Shannon in basketball, undertook his first assignment as head coach. Jack succeeded Frank McGrath, who is now director of physical education for the entire school system.

Lester Wilson, southpaw first baseman, will probably be one of the mainstays in the field as well as in the batting order. Wilson is one of the eight returning lettermen. Also returning on the infield are keystone combination Jim Humbert, Chuck McClenny, and Tom Sleeper, who not only lettered last year but was co-captain of the Trojans. At catcher's position will be Jerry Griffith, and on the mound Bob Morris and left-handed Ralph Luce. In the outfield Jim Griffith will take his old place.

Eighty-five boys reported for initial workouts. The prospects look bright as this book goes to press. Since this book went to press before the track and baseball season was over, it was impossible to give the scores of any contests.

With a Splash SWIMMING

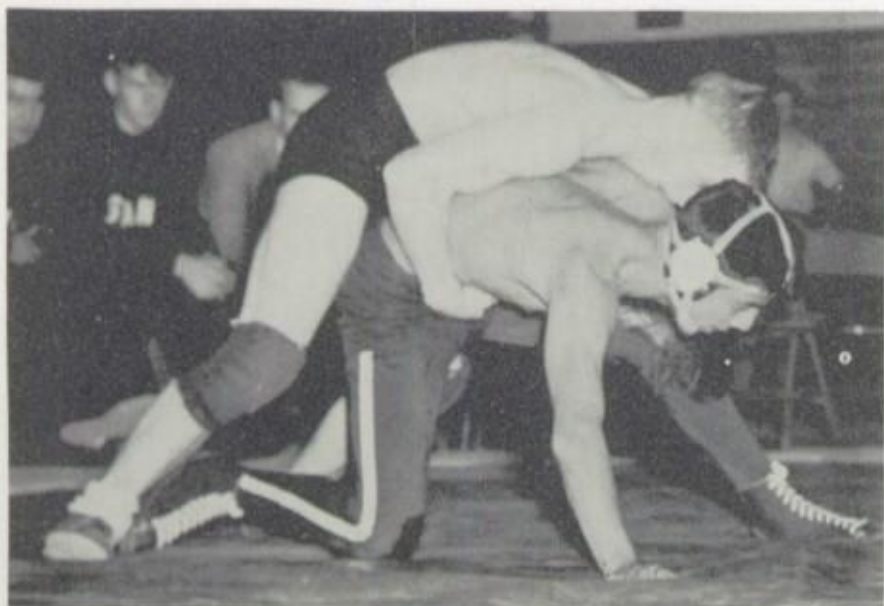

As with other sports this year, Troy's swimming team faced a rebuilding season. Laden with underclassmen, Coach Charles Mill's squad finished the season with a record of three wins and eight losses. One of the high lights during the season was in a meet held at Wyandotte. The Trojans edged out Emporia to cop second place in the newly-formed Sunflower League. The team had only one consistent winner, that being the 160-yard relay team composed of Tom Sleeper, Jim Fisk, Ken McNeil, and Bob Grogger. The season was climaxed at Wichita where Troy placed fourth in the state meet.

This is the completed 1952 Sunflower. The presses have ceased to roll, and the editors and members of the staff can sit back and relax. The work is done. Even as far back as last fall when the end of the year looked so far away we were working toward one thing—a deadline. It has been work; hard work, and we have loved every minute of it, and now it is finished. These pages record not only the events and gaiety of your high school life, but the effort that was made on our part to make these memories real in the years to come.

The problems and responsibilities of editing the yearbook were shouldered by Ann Jeffrey, without whom this annual could never have gone to press, and her assistants on the editorial and business staffs. George Davis, Althea Bromich, and Mason Eagan were tri business managers.

We would like to take this space to bestow our grateful appreciation to Bill Nowlan, Sally Ihinger, Shirley Boggs, and Everett Daves who, though not regular members of the staff, unfailingly gave their time and effort so that this would be a bigger and better Sunflower.
